

Fig. 1.— The dependence of calculated footpoints (Longitude and Colatitude) and expansion factors (FTE) of open magnetic flux tubes with same starting point at the source surface of 2.5 solar radii on the number of multipole magnetic moments, N_{\max} . The Carrington Rotation number and the source surface location of the starting point are shown on the top of each panel.